FIGURES AND ACCESSORIES
ASSIGNMENT OF THE
GREEN AGE OF G.I. JOE
(1964-1978)

In a daring head-on assault somewhere in the high seas, a covert scuba diver is plucked out of enemy's way before the rough waters overtake him and send him as "Davy Jones' Locker." Decried for the most perilous of missions, Navy scuba divers can witness an enemy's territorial waters to navy and reconnaissance and covert demolition assignments, or to rescue prisoners in hostile areas. In any case, the tasks of a scuba diver are extremely dangerous and only highly qualified individuals can become one of these fearless aquatic defenders of freedom.

G.I. Joe scuba diver figure first took to the high seas in 1964 as a sailor, and was reassigned to the Underwater Missions Tactical Unit in 1967, where he became an expert scuba diver, participating in numerous covert coastal operations.

4 G.I. Joe scuba diver was prepared for special assignment anytime, anywhere. The original battle cry of the 1960s can still be heard: "G.I. Joe, G.I. Joe - fighting men from head to toe. On the land, on the sea, in the air."
