Action Man is back!

The hero that inspired whole generations is now fifty years young. It's time to celebrate and start new adventures.

You can relive your special childhood moments with this very limited collection of the best-loved Action Man products.

They will spark great memories of the times you spent creating battles in your bedroom, adventures around the house and those special ops missions in the garden.

Whatever the adventure, Action Man is back in this limited edition range with the best of the 60's and 70's features. The flocked hair, the hands that really grip and the signature scar all feature with outfits, accessories, the Action Man booklet and of course, the iconic dog tag. The packaging has been inspired by one of the original Action Man artists.

You can start your childhood all over again with one of the most collectible action figures of all time!
